From March 4 through 31, the Gene Siskel Film Center welcomes you to our 19th Annual Chicago European Union Film Festival. It’s your ticket to experiencing the creativity and vibrant cultures of twenty-eight nations from the comfort of your theater seat. Chicago premieres of 62 new features distinguish this largest showcase in North America for cinema from European Union nations.

According to the tradition of our festival, the opening night is presided over by the nation currently holding the presidency of the European Union. On Friday, March 4, our host is Consul General of The Netherlands Klaas van der Tempel. Our special guest is actor Issaka Sawadogo, featured in the opening-night film THE PARADISE SUITE, a powerful drama in which the compromised lives of five strangers intersect in today’s Amsterdam.

This is a banner year for festival guests. MacArthur genius award-winning novelist and screenwriter Aleksandar Hemon appears to discuss his spicy comedy LOVE ISLAND on March 5 and 14. Irish screenwriter and actor Mark O’Halloran appears with VIVA on March 13, and again on March 14 in a Movie Club event. Lithuanian American director Aldona Watts will discuss her documentary LAND OF SONGS on March 19 and 21. Writer/executive producer Briona Nic Dhiarmada and executive producer Christopher Fox will conduct a Q&A at the March 21 screening of 1916: THE IRISH REBELLION. Czech director Slávek Horák and actress Alena Mihulová are tentatively slated to discuss HOME CARE on March 12.

For the fourth year, we incorporate the Festival of New Spanish Cinema, organized by Pragda, featured in opening-night film THE PARADISE SUITE, a powerful drama in which the compromised lives of five strangers intersect in today’s Amsterdam.

Daniel Guzmán discusses his film NOTHING IN RETURN on March 17 and 18.

The festival closes on Thursday, March 31 with PHANTOM BOY, a crowd-pleasing, family-friendly, noir-tinged tale that does for Manhattan what the directors’ Oscar-nominated A CAT IN PARIS did for the City of Light.

The Gene Siskel Film Center thanks the consulates, the consuls general, and the cultural institutions of the European Union in Chicago, and their embassies in Washington, D.C., for their enthusiastic participation. Special thanks to our Gene Siskel Film Center Community Council, Sara Hall and Eva Penar, Co-Chairs.

Down Hear: The Films of Mike Henderson
1970-83, Mike Henderson, USA, ca. 75 min.

Thursday, March 31, 6:00 pm
Best known as a painter and blues guitarist, Henderson has produced a remarkable body of experimental and performance-driven films that range from absurd musings to powerful “talking blues films” about black experience. He presents a program covering two decades of work, including the hilarious DUFUS (1970/1973) and the powerful DOWN HEAR (1972). 16mm restored prints courtesy of the Academy Film Archive. (Amy Beste)
From Feb. 2 through May 10, we offer The Child in Cinema, a series of fourteen programs with weekly Tuesday lectures by Pamela Robertson Wojcik, Professor of Film, TV & Theatre at Notre Dame University. The series is presented in cooperation with the SAIC Department of Art History, Theory, and Criticism. Additional screenings of the films on Fri. or Sat. do not include Prof. Wojcik’s lecture. Admission to all The Child in Cinema programs is $5 for Film Center members; usual admission prices apply for non-members.

—Martin Rubin

This series explores the meaning of the image of the child in cinema. It is not about the genre of the children’s film or children’s media. Instead, we will examine the function children perform in film; the meanings we ascribe to childhood; how ideas about childhood change historically; and what kids tell us about our ideas about gender, race, and class. We will investigate how ideals of childhood innocence operate in relation to images of childhood evil, sexuality, criminality, war, and other modes of experience.

—Pamela Robertson Wojcik
