The Dinner

(I NOSTRI RAGAZZI)
2014, Ivano De Mattea, Italy, 92 min.
With Giovanna Mezzogiorno, Alessandro Gassman, Luigi Lo Cascio

“A nuanced critique of modern society...beautifully illustrated.”—Jay Weissberg, Variety

This compelling drama of conscience is based on Dutch author Herman Koch’s international best-seller. Two brothers—a conscientious pediatrician and a high-powered lawyer—regularly meet for dinner with their families, despite the tensions between them. When the doctor’s teenage son and the lawyer’s daughter appear to have collaborated on a brutal crime, the two families must grapple with the question of whether one’s first loyalty should be to family or society. In Italian with English subtitles. DCP digital widescreen. (MR)

August 7—13
Fri. at 2:00 pm and 8:00 pm;
Sat. at 5:00 pm;
Sun. at 3:45 pm;
Mon. and Wed. at 6:00 pm;
Thu. at 8:00 pm

RUNOFF

2014, Kimberly Levin, USA, 90 min.
With Joanne Kelly, Neal Huff

A haunting drama with far-reaching environmental implications, RUNOFF pits the future of a struggling family of four against the desperation of pending foreclosure on their small farm. First-time director (and former biochemist) Levin bathes this poignant, morally complex scenario in the dappled light of a Kentucky October, as wife Betty (a terrific Kelly) is offered desperately needed cash in return for a deal with the devil that involves the clandestine dumping of outlawed chemicals. DCP digital widescreen. (BS)

August 7—13
Fri., Tue., and Thu. at 6:00 pm;
Sat. at 3:00 pm;
Sun. at 5:30 pm;
Mon. and Wed. at 7:45 pm

“Amazing...if you want to be able to say you were there when a great American filmmaker’s career kicked off, you need to see RUNOFF.”—Matt Zoller Seitz, RogerEbert.com

From August 8 through September 3, the Gene Siskel Film Center invites Chicago to celebrate the 21st edition of the Black Harvest Film Festival, exploring the stories, images, heritage, and history of the black experience in the U.S. and around the world through film and video. Black Harvest most especially promotes dialogue, and we feature many personal appearances for audience discussion.

Opening night on Saturday, August 8, will be a don’t-miss affair, when NBC 5’s LeeAnn Trotter MCs A Black Harvest Feast, which includes the presentation of this year’s Deloris Jordan Award for Excellence in Community Leadership to distinguished director, producer, actress, singer, and playwright Jackie Taylor, founder of the Black Ensemble Theater, for her exceptional work in creating educational community outreach programs. Immediately after the show, the audience is invited to a reception across the street at the Joffrey Ballet studios.

Our September 3 closing night will feature director Kiara C. Jones with her sparkling romantic comedy CHRISTMAS WEDDING BABY. The closing night party sponsored by Whole Foods Market follows the screening.

Be the first to see a special advance screening of Stanley Nelson’s powerful BLACK PANTHERS: VANGUARD OF THE REVOLUTION, which we will bring back for its exclusive Chicago run the week of September 25.

Chicago filmmakers are front and center throughout the festival: Ronit Bezalel premieres 70 ACRES IN CHICAGO: CABRINI GREEN; Derek Grace presents COLLEGE WEEK; Cyrus Dowlatshahi appears with TAKIN’ PLACE, produced by Yvonne Welbon; and actor Simeon Henderson (“Chicago PD”) discusses his starring role in JEREMY BROOKS.

Gun control activist Lucia McBath appears with 3½ MINUTES, TEN BULLETS, a documentary on the trial of her son’s killer; the audience is invited to a reception hosted by the MacArthur Foundation following the August 9 screening. Director Rusty Cundieff and actors Sharon Leal and Barry Shabaka Henley will appear with the comedy-drama WHITE WATER, produced by Chicago native Dwayne Johnson-Cochran. Director Nefertite Nguvu will be present for screenings of her romantic drama IN THE MORNING. Be sure to check our web site at www.siskelfilmcenter.org for updates on personal appearances and special events.

The art exhibit Body and Soul, curated by Felicia Mings, will be on display in our gallery/café throughout the festival.

All films are eligible for the Black Harvest Audience Award; ballots available in our lobby.

The Black Harvest Film Festival is supported by the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency, and the Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs and Special Events. Special thanks to festival consultant Sergio Mims, our Black Harvest Community Council, and to the many filmmakers who help make this festival possible.

OPENING NIGHT CELEBRATION

Join Master of Ceremonies LeeAnn Trotter of NBC 5 Chicago for the opening night celebration. The Deloris Jordan Award for Excellence in Community Leadership will be presented to Jackie Taylor, founder and executive director of Chicago’s Black Ensemble Theater. Immediately following the show, the audience is invited to join our celebrity guests for a reception at Joffrey Tower (8 E. Randolph St.), home of The Joffrey Ballet Chicago.

Saturday, August 8, 7:00 pm

OPENING NIGHT FILMS!

A Black Harvest Feast

2014-15, Various directors, USA, 71 min.
Saturday, August 8, 7:00 pm

Enjoy a sneak preview of the 2015 “harvest” through five short films: Shahari Moore and Christine List's delightfully sensual B LOVE (2015, 14 min.); Mark Howard’s harried-dad portrait MISTER MOM (14 min.); Francis Polo's cell-phone-themed comedy DISCONNECTED (2015, 10 min.); Stephanie Graham’s wincingly accurate THE BLACK KID TABLE (2015, 11 min.); and Derek Dow’s ode to the sneaker, BEYOND THE SOLE (2014, 22 min.). Various digital formats. (BS, MR)

Directors Shahari Moore, Christine List, Mark Howard, Francis Polo, Stephanie Graham, and (tentatively) Derek Dow will be present.

Special admission prices for this program (includes reception): General Admission $25; Students $20; Members $15. Proceeds from this screening benefit the educational programs of the Gene Siskel Film Center. No free passes, blue tickets, or Black Harvest festival passes will be valid for this screening.

CLOSING NIGHT FILM!

KIARA C. JONES IN PERSON!

CHRISTMAS WEDDING BABY

2014, Kiara C. Jones, USA, 96 min.
With Lisa Arrindell Anderson, Stephen Hill
Friday, August 28, 6:15 pm
Thursday, September 3, 6:30 pm

This romantic comedy takes an endearingly bittersweet approach to bridal jitters, single parenthood, and the joys of sisterhood. Bride-to-be Andrea looks to shine as her family’s princess on her special day, but an upstage may be in the offing due to the ongoing personal dramas of her two sisters, and the machinations of momzilla Miranda. When the wedding photographer turns out to be Andrea’s long-lost first love, it’s anything but the icing on the (wedding) cake. HDCAM video. (BS)

Director Kiara C. Jones will be present for audience discussion on Thu., Sept. 3. Immediately following the Thursday show, there will be a reception hosted by Whole Foods Market. No free passes, blue tickets, or Black Harvest festival passes will be valid for this screening.

Tickets available at the box office only. Seats available on a first come, first served basis.

Legal and Business Pitfalls: Screenplay through Distribution and Fundraising

Sunday, August 9, 12:30 pm

With extensive entertainment law, corporate, and worldwide industry experience, Hal “Corky” Kessler will lead a two-hour discussion of funding issues, the importance of copyright, what makes a winning screenplay and production team, developing a business and marketing plan, hiring a lawyer and accountant, and moving a project forward.

Action! The Real Deal About Filmmaking

Saturday, August 22, 5:30 pm

Our Black Harvest panel discussion annually debates issues relating to black filmmaking. Festival consultant Sergio Mims heads up a panel of filmmakers to include directors Kirby Ashley (SIDELINE), Derek Grace (COLLEGE WEEK), and Shahari Moore and Christine List (B LOVE). The audience is invited to participate in this provocative forum.

The Realities of Screenwriting

Sunday, August 30, 1:00 pm

Thinking about writing a screenplay? Get the real scoop on screenwriting in this free workshop conducted by our Black Harvest consultant Sergio Mims, who's been there, done that. In this informative 90-minute session, Mims reveals what screenwriting books don't tell you, and why hiring those self-proclaimed gurus is a waste of your money.

3½ MINUTES, TEN BULLETS, Aug. 9, 10

Lucia McBath in person!

3½ MINUTES, TEN BULLETS
2015, Marc Silver, USA, 85 min.

Sunday, August 9, 3:00 pm
Monday, August 10, 8:00 pm

Examining the 2012 shooting death of 17-year-old Jordan Davis in Jacksonville, Florida, this lucid documentary draws a powerful portrait of a family’s personal tragedy and an unsettling critique of the “Stand Your Ground” laws that exist in 33 states. DCP digital. (MR)

Lucia McBath, mother of Jordan Davis and National Spokesperson for Moms Demand Action For Gun Sense In America, will be present for audience discussion at both screenings. The audience is invited to a reception hosted by the MacArthur Foundation in our gallery/café following the Sunday screening.

Shorts Program:
Made in Chicago I
2013-15, Various directors, USA, 84 min.

Sunday, August 9, 5:30 pm
Thursday, August 13, 8:15 pm

2015, Barbara Attie, Janet Goldwater, and Sabrina Schmidt Gordon, USA, 90 min.

Tuesday, August 11, 6:15 pm
Wednesday, August 12, 8:15 pm

Poet Sanchez has been on the front lines of art and activism for over 50 years. She was a pioneer of the Black Arts Movement, fought to found the first Black Studies program, and exerted a widely acknowledged influence on the hip hop and spoken word movements. This full-access documentary portrait captures the breadth of Sanchez’s rich and often unsettled life. DCP digital. (MR)

Dr. Haki R. Madhubuti in person!

Dr. Haki R. Madhubuti, award-winning poet and long-time friend of Sonia Sanchez, will be present for audience discussion on Tuesday.

The Tuesday screening is a Movie Club event (see p. 3).

LAST NIGHT
2014, Harold Jackson III, USA, 93 min.
With Judy Blair, Danny Gavigan

Friday, August 14, 6:15 pm
Saturday, August 15, 8:30 pm

In the romantic spirit of BEFORE SUNRISE, LAST NIGHT spins an unexpected adventure when discontented young businessman Jon (Gavigan) spots practically-engaged fashion model Sky (Blair) in a Washington, D.C., coffee shop. A casual stroll becomes an all-night ramble, and verbal sparring escalates into soul-baring disclosures between strangers who might never meet again. HDCAM video. (BS)

Filmmakers in person!
JEREMY BROOKS
2015, Kyle T. Miller, USA, 120 min.
With Simeon Henderson, Niya Davis

Friday, August 14, 8:30 pm
Thursday, August 20, 8:15 pm

A rip-roaring saga of runaway ambition stars Chicago’s own Simeon Henderson (“Chicago PD,” “Empire”) as an arrogant would-be news anchor whose after-work dalliance with the wrong alluring intern sets off a chain of fateful events. Director Miller brings a grand sense of melodrama to this story of broken faith and the quest for forgiveness. DCP digital. (BS)

Actor Simeon Henderson and (tentatively) director Kyle T. Miller will be present for audience discussion at both screenings.
SOUL TRAIN: THE HIPPEST TRIP IN AMERICA, Aug. 15

2010, J. Kevin Swan, USA, 64 min.
Narrated by Terrence Howard

Saturday, August 15, 1:00 pm
This special screening celebrates the 45th anniversary of Soul Train, the legendary dance-party show that made TV history. Note: Because this film was created in a now-obsolete TV format, existing copies are of inferior technical quality. (BS)

CRESCENDO! THE POWER OF MUSIC
2014, Jamie Bernstein, USA, 85 min.

Sunday, August 16, 3:00 pm Tuesday, August 18, 6:15 pm
Conductor José Antonio Abreu’s El Sistema music education program, created 40 years ago in Venezuela, has transformed the lives of disadvantaged children around the globe. CRESCENDO! follows two El Sistema-inspired programs, one in Philadelphia, the other in Harlem, focusing on three vividly drawn children whose talents don’t necessarily remove their problems. DCP digital. (MR)

WHITE WATER
2015, Rusty Cundieff, USA, 84 min.

Sunday, August 16, 5:15 pm Monday, August 17, 6:15 pm
Director Cundieff (FEAR OF A BLACK HAT) brings an aura of innocence and an immense sense of humor to this story of a seven-year-old boy’s obsession with tasting the special water he believes will flow from the “Whites Only” drinking fountain in his 1960s Alabama hometown. DCP digital. (BS)

Director Rusty Cundieff and actors Sharon Leal and Barry Shabaka Henley will be present for audience discussion at both screenings.

IN THE MORNING
2014, Nefertite Nguvu, USA, 75 min.

Tuesday, August 18, 8:30 pm Wednesday, August 19, 6:15 pm

ACROSS THE TRACKS (We Are Family), Sept. 1
The Wolfpack

“Astonishing...tells a strange tale with heart and generosity.”

August 7—13
Fri. at 2:00 pm and 8:15 pm;
Sun. at 2:00 pm;
Mon. and Wed. at 6:00 pm;
Tue. at 8:00 pm

This bizarre documentary about six movie-mad brothers who grow up as virtual prisoners in a Manhattan public-housing apartment could have been framed as a tragedy. Instead, director Moselle creates a rambunctious tale bristling with the imagination of boys, ages 16 to 23, whose only frame of reference for the outside world is movies like RESERVOIR DOGS and THE DARK KNIGHT. Born of a reclusive Peruvian immigrant dad and an American hippie mom, the home-schooled brothers compensate for their isolation by meticulously recreating their favorite films with the humble materials at hand. DCP digital. (BS)

TOM AT THE FARM

(TOM À LA FERME)
2013, Xavier Dolan, Canada, 102 min.
With Xavier Dolan, Pierre-Yves Cardinal

“Pulse-raising Hitchcockian suspense… taut, creepy, compelling and sexy.”
—Ben Walters, Time Out London

Enfant terrible Dolan (I KILLED MY MOTHER, MOMMY), 24-year-old internationally acclaimed writer/director/actor, spins a tense gothic tale steeped in lethal homoerotic attraction. Tom (Dolan), a tow-headed gay urbanite, steels himself to meet the straitlaced rural family of his dead lover. Caught between the late boyfriend’s spacey delusional mother and violently homophobic brother, Tom becomes a virtual prisoner locked into a savage tango of fear-tinged desire. In French with English subtitles. DCP digital. (BS)

August 14—20
Fri. at 2:00 pm and 6:00 pm;
Sat. at 4:45 pm and 8:30 pm;
Sun. at 3:00 pm;
Mon. at 7:45 pm;
Tue. and Thu. at 8:00 pm;
Wed. at 6:00 pm
IN THE GAME

2015, Maria Finitzo, USA, 79 min.

A warm and often heart-tugging look at a girls’ soccer team at Chicago’s inner-city Kelly High School in the primarily Hispanic Brighton Park neighborhood, IN THE GAME is an intimate study in sisterhood and hope in the face of adversity.

Award-winning director Finitzo (5 GIRLS) underlines the solid sense of family that young players discover in the team setting, as rocky home lives, poverty, and budget-slashing political forces conspire to limit their prospects for a bright future. DCP digital. (BS)

Director Maria Finitzo will be present for audience discussion on Saturday and Sunday.

August 22—27
Sat. and Sun. at 3:00 pm; Mon., Tue., and Thu. at 6:00 pm

TEN THOUSAND SAINTS

2015, Shari Springer Berman and Robert Pulcini, USA, 113 min.

With Hailee Steinfeld, Asa Butterfield, Ethan Hawke

“Funny, bittersweet, and wild... an instant winner.” —Katie Walsh, The Playlist

Loaded with charm, Eighties nostalgia, and bittersweet life lessons, TEN THOUSAND SAINTS is a vibrant and quirky coming-of-age story by the co-directors of AMERICAN SPLENDOR. A fateful New Year’s Eve propels young Jude (Butterfield) from rural Vermont into the crazed East Village sphere of his devil-may-care drug-dealer dad (Hawke), the smartass daughter (Steinfeld) of dad’s main squeeze (Emily Mortimer), and a hardcore punk singer (Emile Hirsch) who becomes the third side in an offbeat love triangle. DCP digital. (BS)

August 21—27
Fri. at 2:00 pm and 6:00 pm; Sat. at 8:30 pm; Sun. at 4:45 pm; Mon. at 8:00 pm; Tue. and Thu. at 7:45 pm; Wed. at 6:00 pm
CHICAGO PREMIERE!

She’s Funny That Way

2014, Peter Bogdanovich, USA, 93 min.
With Imogene Poots, Owen Wilson, Jennifer Aniston

“Delightful zinger-filled farce… the whole thing fizzes with joie de vivre.”
—John Bleasdale, Cinevue

Maverick director Bogdanovich (THE LAST PICTURE SHOW), mentor to a younger generation of movie-makers that includes Wes Anderson and Quentin Tarantino, brings a blast from the past to this goofy screwball comedy. A one-night-stand with a Broadway director (Wilson) transforms Brooklyn call girl Izzy (Poots) into aspiring thespian Isabella. In the ensuing mash-up of wives, lovers, ex-lovers, johns, and one disgruntled shrink (Aniston), everybody’s hot on Izzy’s trail, except for the man who changed her life. DCP digital. (BS)

August 28—September 3
Fri. at 2:00 pm and 6:15 pm; Sat. at 5:00 pm and 7:45 pm; Sun. at 3:00 pm and 4:45 pm; Mon. and Wed. at 6:00 pm; Tue. and Thu. at 8:00 pm

AN EYE FOR BEAUTY

2014, Denys Arcand, Canada, 102 min.
With Éric Bruneau, Mélanie Thierry, Melanie Merkosky

“Gorgeous cast and dreamy locations in classically composed widescreen.”
—Jordan Mintzer, Hollywood Reporter

Oscar-winner Arcand (THE BARBARIAN INVASIONS) has his satirical mojo working in this arch romance, balancing it with a breathtaking vision of changing seasons along the St. Lawrence River. There’s a tongue-in-cheek edge to the utter perfection of hot young architect Luc’s materialist lifestyle, complete with dream house and luscious tennis-champion wife, but the prospect of a one-night stand with a seductive colleague in another city could bring it all tumbling down. In French and English with English subtitles. DCP digital. (BS)

August 28—September 3

To throw a little shade into the August sunshine, the Gene Siskel Film Center presents Casting Dark Shadows: Film Noir Revisited, a tribute to the perennially fascinating cycle of moody crime movies that arose from the anxieties of post-World War II America. The eight-film series runs from August 7 through September 2.

THE THIRD MAN
1949, Carol Reed, U.K., 104 min.
With Joseph Cotten, Orson Welles

Friday, August 7, 6:00 pm
Saturday, August 8, 3:00 pm

Reed’s classic thriller, scripted by Graham Greene and featuring a legendary performance by Welles, was voted the greatest British film of all time in a 1999 BFI poll. A naive American pulp writer (Cotten) is plunged into the real-life intrigue of postwar Vienna, a black-market mecca haunted by the specter of his recently deceased friend, the mysterious Harry Lime. New 4K DCP digital restoration. (MR)

THE LADY FROM SHANGHAI
1947, Orson Welles, USA, 87 min.
With Rita Hayworth, Orson Welles

Saturday, August 8, 5:00 pm
Thursday, August 13, 6:15 pm

Welles’s flamboyant thriller casts him as a gullible sailor drawn by a blonde temptress (Hayworth) and her superlawyer husband (Everett Sloane) into a sinister conspiracy that stretches from New York’s Central Park to the South American jungle to San Francisco’s Chinatown. The climactic hall-of-mirrors shoot-out is one of film history’s greatest set pieces. New 4K DCP digital restoration. (MR)

SATURDAY DOUBLE-BILL DISCOUNT!

(This discount rate applies to the second feature only.)
BUNNY LAKE IS MISSING
1965, Otto Preminger, USA, 107 min.
With Laurence Olivier, Carol Lynley
Saturday, August 15, 3:00 pm
Thursday, August 20, 6:00 pm
An American single mother (Lynley) newly arrived in London claims that her small daughter has disappeared: conspiracy or hallucination? This tense, intriguing mystery is boosted by elegant widescreen camerawork and Olivier’s beautifully underplayed performance as a wry police inspector. New 4K DCP digital restoration. (MR)

PUSHOVER
1954, Richard Quine, USA, 88 min.
With Fred MacMurray, Kim Novak
Saturday, August 15, 5:15 pm
Monday, August 17, 6:00 pm
A veteran cop (MacMurray) on a stakeout becomes entangled with the gangster’s girlfriend (Novak) on the other side of his binoculars. This rainy-streetered noir gains resonance from the confrontation between old-school noir icon MacMurray (DOUBLE INDEMNITY) and up-and-coming sex symbol Novak. 35mm. (MR)

CAST A DARK SHADOW
1955, Lewis Gilbert, UK, 85 min.
With Dirk Bogarde, Margaret Lockwood
Saturday, August 22, 3:00 pm
Wednesday, August 26, 6:15 pm
This nifty Britnoir finds Bogarde (THE SERVANT) in top form as a silky sponger who seeks out wealthy older women to seduce, marry, and murder. Bogarde’s brilliance is complemented by a roster of superb actresses, notably Lockwood (THE LADY VANISHES) as a blowzy ex-barmaid. New 2K DCP digital restoration. (MR)

CORRIDOR OF MIRRORS
1948, Terence Young, UK, 96 min.
With Edana Romney, Eric Portman
Saturday, August 22, 4:45 pm
Monday, August 24, 6:00 pm
One of the genuine oddities of British cinema, this art-film/psycho-thriller/gothic-romance hybrid tells the strange tale of a restless wife (Romney) entranced by a magnetic dandy (Portman) who believes that he is a reincarnation of Cesare Borgia and she is his long-lost femme fatale. New 2K DCP digital restoration. (MR)
THE KILLING
1956, Stanley Kubrick, USA, 85 min.
With Sterling Hayden, Marie Windsor
Saturday, August 29, 3:00 pm
Wednesday, September 2, 6:15 pm
Kubrick put a jazzy modernist spin on film-noir conventions in his first masterpiece. Hayden heads up a gallery of rugged B-picture mugs in the tense tale of a precision-planned racetrack heist that has one weak link: a nervous little inside-man (Elisha Cook, Jr.) with a loose-lipped floozie of a wife (Windsor). DCP digital. (MR)

CRIS CROSS
1949, Robert Siodmak, USA, 88 min.
With Burt Lancaster, Yvonne De Carlo
Saturday, August 29, 4:45 pm
Monday, August 31, 6:15 pm
As a fate-blaming patsy and the inconstant ex-wife he can't stay away from, Lancaster and De Carlo make a physically beautiful but emotionally toxic couple, with an armored-car heist providing the trigger for deception and double-crosses. The gripping final act climaxes with perhaps the cruelest last shot in all of noirdom. 35mm. (MR)

2015, Jim Strouse, USA, 85 min.
With Jemaine Clement, Regina Hall

"A total charmer."—Katie Walsh, The Playlist

"Ceaselessly entertaining, witty."—Sterlin Johnson, Indiewire

Clement (WHAT WE DO IN THE SHADOWS) gives a breakthrough performance in this genuinely charming rom-com about a New Zealand-bred, Brooklyn-based graphic novelist and teacher whose ego is pulverized when his wife dumps him. Taking pity on his pathetic bachelorhood, a student introduces him to her love-bruised lit-professor mom (Hall). Clement’s lanky frame and offhand wit make him the most refreshingly unconventional romantic lead since Bill Murray. DCP digital. (MR)
