CHICAGO PREMIERE!

2017, Frederick Wiseman, USA, 197 min.

In his 41st film, documentary master Wiseman (IN JACKSON HEIGHTS) brings his breathtakingly expansive humanism to an in-depth portrait of the New York Public Library. He surveys the inner workings and public manifestations of the library at its iconic Fifth Avenue Beaux-Arts home base, its 92 branches, and its online community. The democratic ideal of knowledge for all emerges in diverse and engaging scenarios worthy of a gripping drama, making this one of Wiseman’s all-time best. DCP digital. (BS)

THE ENIGMA OF HENRY DARGER
2017, Mark Stokes, UK, 104 min.

Reclusive outsider artist Henry Darger worked for decades in obscurity, and only following his 1973 death was his massive life’s work discovered by his landlord, artist-photographer Nathan Lerner. This in-depth documentary explores Darger’s traumatic personal history, including youthful confinement in an asylum where children were brutally punished, and ranges over the themes and images of his paintings and drawings. Presented in cooperation with Intuit: The Center for Intuitive and Outsider Art in Chicago. DCP digital. (BS)

Director Mark Stokes is scheduled to appear for audience discussion on Saturday.

MICKEY LEMLE IN PERSON!

THE LAST DALAI LAMA?

2016, Mickey Lemle, USA, 82 min.

“Takes you right up close to the Tibetan holy one’s presence—and wisdom.” — Owen Gleiberman, Variety

At the age of 81, Tibet’s 14th Dalai Lama is seen as vibrant, intensely curious, and gently good-humored, even as he contemplates his own demise and the uncertain possibility of a successor under Tibet’s Chinese rule. Director Lemle, who profiled the Dalai Lama in the 1992 documentary COMPASSION ON EXILE, revisits the holy man for a series of wide-ranging and surprisingly intimate conversations. DCP digital. (BS)

MOSCOW NEVER SLEEPS

2015, Johnny O’Reilly, Russia/Ireland, 100 min.

Irish director O’Reilly, a former Muscovite, brings the city to vibrant life in a sequence of interlocking dramas. A real estate wheeler-dealer meets his match in wily Putin pals, while his pop-star girlfriend is pursued by her pleading ex. A has-been comedian at death’s door slips the grasp of wife and mistress, only to run afoul of kidnappers. A grandmother fears her fate at the hands of callous family, while two quarreling sisters bond over a pickup gone wrong. In Russian with English subtitles. DCP digital. (BS)

WASTED!
THE STORY OF FOOD WASTE
2017, Anna Chai and Nari Kye, USA, 85 min.

“CHICAGO PREMIERE!
A knock-out doc... beautifully shot.”
—Mary Leslie, Film Pulse

If a documentary about global food waste and its remedies doesn’t sound mouthwatering, think again, for WASTED! is a rousing good story of mind-boggling foodie innovations, high-tech initiatives pioneering in Europe and Asia, and unusual gastronomic delights. The film’s executive producer, chef Anthony Bourdain, joins a coterie of chefs and food critics to provide a shocking, enlightening, and entertaining look at the problem and a multitude of innovative solutions. DCP digital. (BS)

The Wednesday screening is a Movie Club event (see p. 3).

WOODPECKERS
(CARPINTEROS)
2017, José María Cabral, Dominican Republic, 107 min.

“High octane... an authentic, distinctive and watchable blend of the tough and the tender.”
—Jonathan Holland, Hollywood Reporter

An affair takes wings within the walls of a high-security prison in this startlingly original romantic drama-thriller. New prisoner Julián (Jean Jean) is mentored by volatile top-dog Manuary, who entrusts him with messaging his girlfriend at the adjacent women’s prison via a system of hand signals known as “pecking.” Redheaded spitfire Yanelly (Rodriguez) rejects the messages but falls for the messenger, initiating a perilous clandestine courtship. ENDLESS POETRY

(POESÍA SIN FIN)
2016, Alejandro Jodorowsky, Chile/France, 128 min.
With Adan Jodorowsky, Brontis Jodorowsky

“A feast for the senses...gloriously assembled.”—Boyd van Hoeij, Hollywood Reporter

In this extravagant autobiographical narrative, Jodorowsky (EL TOPO) dramatizes his own coming of age in a magic realist mode. Hounded by a stern father, transformed by the poetry of Lorca, and desired by a gay cousin, young Alejandro is seduced into an exotically seamy nightlife where insatiable women and carnal dangers lurk. THE TRIP TO SPAIN

2017, Michael Winterbottom, UK, 108 min.
With Steve Coogan, Rob Brydon

“The funniest movie of the year.”—David Ehrlich, Indiewire

The intrepid sparring partners of THE TRIP and THE TRIP TO ITALY are back on the road again, older, funnier, but not necessarily wiser. From town to picturesque town, Spain’s Mediterranean coast rolls out an enticing menu of lush landscapes and foodie delights, while a hint of male menopause begins to shade the snarky one-upmanship of vain raconteur Coogan and his wily foil Brydon. Filmmaker Holzemer goes to the heart of the secretive empire, following van Noten and his partner Patrick Vangheluwe at work and at home, over one year and the creation of four collections. TROUBLE IN PARADISE
1932, Ernst Lubitsch, USA, 83 min.
With Herbert Marshall, Miriam Hopkins

Saturday, October 7, 3:00 pm
Wednesday, October 11, 6:00 pm

Two expert jewel thieves (Marshall, Hopkins) find paradise while picking each other’s pockets; trouble arrives when he becomes entangled with one of their prospective victims, an amorous perfume-company magnate (Kay Francis). Many consider this ultra-sophisticated comedy to be Lubitsch’s greatest film; Lubitsch himself said, “For pure style, I have done nothing as good as TROUBLE IN PARADISE.” Preceded by DINAH (1932, Dave Fleischer, USA, 7 min.), a Bouncing Ball cartoon featuring music by the Mills Brothers. Both in 35mm. (MR)

SONS OF THE DESERT
1933, William A. Seiter, USA, 70 min.
With Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy

Saturday, October 7, 4:45 pm
Monday, October 9, 6:00 pm

Widely considered Laurel & Hardy’s funniest film, this slapstick classic has Stan and Ollie as lodge members who sneak off from their wives to make whoopee at a convention in Chicago. The main focus of the film’s humor is the (not-undeserved) emasculation of the American male, as Stan and Ollie are p-whipped to a fare-thee-well by their pants-wearing, knife-wielding, shotgun-toting, crockery-hurling spouses. Preceded by BERTH MARKS (1929, Lewis R. Foster, USA, 19 min.), L&H’s first talkie. Both in 35mm. (MR)

NT LIVE
ANGELS IN AMERICA

THE LOST MOMENT
1947, Martin Gabel, USA, 89 min.
With Robert Cummings, Susan Hayward

Friday, October 13, 2:00 pm
Saturday, October 14, 3:00 pm

This Gothic noir is a richly atmospheric adaptation of Henry James’s classic novella The Aspern Papers. An unscrupulous American publisher (Cummings) comes to Venice in search of the long-lost love-letters of a celebrated poet who disappeared under mysterious circumstances many years ago. Assuming a false identity, he insinuates himself into the household of the poet’s erstwhile inamorata (Agnes Morehead), now a formidable 105-year-old with an adoptive niece (Hayward) who has fallen under the mansion’s past-haunted spell. 35mm. (MR)

OPEN SECRET
1948, John Reinhardt, USA, 68 min.
With John Ireland, Jane Randolph

Saturday, October 14, 4:45 pm
Monday, October 16, 6:00 pm

A newlywed couple (Ireland, Randolph) visit one of the husband’s army buddies, only to find the man missing and their safety threatened by a sinister organization in search of incriminating photographs. This low-budget noir has more on its mind than shadows and paranoia, injecting its thriller framework with strong doses of social consciousness on such topics as anti-Semitism and domestic abuse. Preceded by MOODS OF THE SEA (1941, Slavko Vorkapich and John Hoffman, USA, 10 min.), a lyrical ode to the ocean. Both in 35mm. (MR)

THE MURDER OF FRED HAMPTON
1971, Howard Alk, USA, 88 min.

Saturday, October 21, 3:30 pm
Wednesday, October 25, 7:45 pm

This still-relevant documentary began as a portrait of the charismatic leader of the Chicago chapter of the Black Panther Party, but the agenda changed when Hampton was killed in a police raid, and director Alk and his crew recorded crucial evidence of a cold-blooded assassination. Courtesy of Carol Gray, William Cottle, and Chicago Film Archives. Preceded by THE JUNGLE (1967, Charlie "Brown" Davis, Jimmy "Country" Robinson, and David "Bat" Williams, USA, 22 min.), a depiction of Northern Philadelphia street life. Both in 35mm. (MR)

STRANDED
1965, Juleen Compton, USA, 90 min.
With Juleen Compton, Gary Collins

Saturday, October 21, 5:45 pm
Monday, October 23, 6:00 pm

Juleen Compton has been a lost figure in the evolution of independent feminist cinema. Well-connected in the New York theater world, she self-financed her first film STRANDED, which premiered at Cannes and then virtually disappeared. With a freewheeling, loosely plotted style that connects to both the French and American New Waves, the film stars Compton herself as Raina, an American expatriate who pursues a liberated lifestyle while sailing through the Greek islands with her most recent lover and her gay best friend. 35mm. (MR)
HE WALKED BY NIGHT
1948, Alfred Werker and Anthony Mann, USA, 78 min.
With Richard Basehart, Scott Brady

Saturday, October 28, 3:15 pm
Wednesday, November 1, 6:00 pm

Two contrasting styles, nightmarish noir and rationalist semidocumentary, vied for supremacy in the postwar crime genre. HE WALKED BY NIGHT is notable for incorporating this contrast into its two-sided structure. The daylight world of the police investigation is presented in prosaic semidoc style, while the underground realm of the hunted psychopath (Basehart) is painted in rich high-noir shadows. Uncredited director Anthony Mann and cinematographer John Alton create some of the most stunning images in film-noir history. 35mm. (MR)

LOS TALLOS AMARGOS
(THE BITTER STEMS)
1957, Fernando Ayola, Argentina, 88 min.
with Carlos Cores, Aída Luz

Saturday, October 28, 5:00 pm
Monday, October 30, 6:00 pm

This recently exhumed, high-powered Argentinian noir uses Expressionistic techniques and Poe-like interior monologues to take us into the troubled mind of Alberto, an insecure journalist who becomes involved in a correspondence-school scam and then turns on his partner. Highlights include a surreal Freudian dream sequence that rivals the one in Hitchcock's SPELLBOUND and an overheated jazz-club montage that matches the delirious drum solo in Siodmak's PHANTOM LADY. In Spanish with English subtitles. 35mm. (MR)

CHICAGO PREMIERE! SCOTT D. ROSENBAUM IN PERSON!

2016, Scott D. Rosenbaum, USA, 81 min.
With Pinetop Perkins, Willie Smith, Hubert Sumlin

“An exceptionally entertaining and captivating tribute to the men and their music”—Joe Leydon, Variety

In the spirit of 20 FEET FROM STARDOM and THE WRECKING CREW, this behind-the-headliners documentary brings overdue recognition to pianist Perkins, drummer Smith, and guitar hero Sumlin. Working in the shadow of such blues giants as Howlin’ Wolf and Muddy Waters, they were instrumental in bringing the Delta sound from the Deep South to Chicago, where it became the electrified blues and spawned the revolution known as rock 'n' roll. Narrated by Marc Maron. DCP digital. (MR)

Director Scott D. Rosenbaum and special guests are scheduled to appear for audience discussion on Friday and Saturday.

LONG ROAD TO GLORY

164 North State Street. Tickets available at www.siskelfilmcenter.org. For more information, visit our website or call 312-846-2800.
From October 6 through 30, the four-film series Apichatpong Weerasethakul: Spirit and Enigma is presented in cooperation with the School of the Art Institute of Chicago’s Sullivan Galleries Exhibition “Apichatpong Weerasethakul: The Serenity of Madness.” His Cannes Palme d’Or winner UNCLE BOONMEE WHO CAN RECALL HIS PAST LIVES, SYNDROMES AND A CENTURY, and TROPICAL MALADY will screen in rare 35mm prints.

Born in Bangkok of physician parents, Weerasethakul earned an undergraduate degree in architecture, even as he was gravitating to filmmaking. With an MFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, he moved rapidly toward mastery of a unique non-traditional narrative form in which lush imagery, rife with earthy eroticism and off-hand flashes of humor, conveys an ethereal sense of the unseen. A prevailing theme in Weerasethakul’s work is the integration of the spirit world with the concrete world of his human characters.

CEMETERY OF SPLendor
(RAK TI KHON KAEN)
2015, Apichatpong Weerasethakul, Thailand/UK/France, 122 min.
With Jenjira Pongpas, Banlop Lomnoi

Friday, October 6, 8:00 pm
Monday, October 9, 7:45 pm

Weerasethakul proves masterful in exploring the intersection of the human and spirit worlds through a film of delicate, sumptuous beauty. A few soldiers lie stricken by a mysterious sleeping sickness in a rural town’s veranda-like hospital. The film’s subtle theme of healing encompasses not just the prone figures in the beds, but a hospital volunteer, a psychic, and an awakened soldier, all of whom will come to walk, knowingly or unknowingly, with resident spirits. In Thai with English subtitles. DCP digital. (BS)

UNCLE BOONMEE WHO CAN RECALL HIS PAST LIVES
(LOONG BOONMEE RALEUK CHAT)
2010, Apichatpong Weerasethakul, UK/Thailand, 113 min.
With Thanapat Saisaymar

Friday, October 13, 8:00 pm
Sunday, October 15, 5:00 pm

An enchanted pool, a shimmering golden fish, and a water-bound transformation spin a tale of haunting delight in this Cannes Palme d’Or-winning feature. Breathtakingly mystical and steeped in a Buddhist worldview, the loose narrative is spun around the last days of a dying man. Uncle Boonmee retreats with two family members to a small jungle home, where he is soon visited by guests from the spirit world in some of the most delicately beautiful and fantastical sequences in contemporary cinema. In Thai with English subtitles. 35mm. (BS)

SYNDROMES AND A CENTURY
(SANG SATTAWAT)
2006, Apichatpong Weerasethakul,
Thailand/France/Austria, 105 min.
With Nantarat Sawaddikul, Jaruchai Iamaram

Friday, October 20, 8:15 pm
Sunday, October 22, 4:45 pm

The filmmaker uses handed-down memories from his parents’ pasts to fashion a story that begins in a small rural hospital where job applicant Dr. Nohng (laram) encounters young Dr. Toey (Sawaddikul). In the second half, set in a large urban hospital, Nohng’s encounters with the past and present begin to come full circle. In Thai with English subtitles. 35mm. (BS)

A discussion after the Sunday screening will be led by Melika Bass, Assistant Professor of Film, Video, New Media, and Animation at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago.
TROPICAL MALADY
(SUD PRALAD)
2004, Apichatpong Weerasethakul, Thailand, 118 min.
With Banlop Lomnoi, Sakda Kaewbuadee

Friday, October 27, 8:00 pm
Monday, October 30, 8:00 pm

Weerasethakul has been celebrated for his challenging of traditional narrative forms in favor of open-ended structures that evoke both modernist experiments and folklore. TROPICAL MALADY is divided into two parts that have a suggestively mysterious relationship to each other. The first part depicts a tentative romance between a soldier and a country boy; in the second part, a soldier (the same one?) plunges into a jungle haunted by such creatures as a ghost tiger and a talking baboon. In Thai with English subtitles. 35mm. (MR)

TWO BY GODARD

NEWLY RESTORED!

LA CHINOISE
1967, Jean-Luc Godard, France, 96 min.
With Anne Wiazemsky, Jean-Pierre Léaud, Juliet Berto

“The great auteur’s Mao-sterpiece returns in a beautiful new restoration.”
—Bilge Eberi, Village Voice

Coming near the end of Godard’s 1960s Golden Period and just before his dive into the deep end of political cinema, LA CHINOISE is a resonantly contradictory work. A group of young middle-class leftists turn an apartment into a Maoist cell—painting, playing, debating, dressing up, and listening to revolutionary pop songs as they drift toward the brink of violent action. The film’s palette of red-dominated primary colors dazzles in a new 2K DCP digital restoration. In French with English subtitles. (MR)

October 6—12

LE GAI SAVOIR
(JOY OF LEARNING)
1969, Jean-Luc Godard, France, 92 min.
With Juliet Berto, Jean-Pierre Léaud

“Shamelessly beautiful...Thinking in LE GAI SAVOIR is a sensuous activity.”

After declaring “Fin du Cinéma” at the end of WEEKEND, Godard sets out to return to zero and rebuild his cinema from the ground up. Two young radicals (Berto, Léaud) meet nightly in an empty TV studio to explore ways of deconstructing language, including cinema’s language of sounds and images. In French with English subtitles. New 2K DCP digital restoration. (MR)

From Sept. 2 through Nov. 28, we offer a series of thirteen programs with weekly Tuesday lectures by film historian Donald Crafton, Professor Emeritus at the University of Notre Dame, and author of Before Mickey and Shadow of a Mouse. The series is presented in cooperation with the SAIC Dept. of Art History, Theory, and Criticism. Additional screenings of the films on Fri. or Sat. do not include the lecture. Admission to all Making ’Em Move programs is $5 for Film Center members; usual prices for non-members.

—Martin Rubin

We live in an animated world. Images in synthesized motion paper our buildings, billboards, arenas, and of course our personal screens. We carry animation in our pockets and purses, wear it on our wrists. This series will explore the foundations of the present day’s omnianimation that were established in the medium of theatrical entertainment films. The films screened offer the possibility of analyzing animation as a technology, an industrial practice, a cultural signifier, and a still-evolving genre.

INSTITUTE BENJAMENTA
1995, Stephen Quay and Timothy Quay, UK/Germany, 105 min.
With Mark Rylance, Alice Krige

Friday, September 29, 8:15 pm
Tuesday, October 3, 6:00 pm

The Quay Brothers’ first live-action film is remarkable for how closely it resembles their early stop-motion animated shorts, subtly eroding the boundary between animate and inanimate. A young man (Rylance) enrolls in a Germanic school for training servants, where he arouses the desires of the Institute’s unhinged headmaster (Gottfried John) and his stern yet vulnerable sister (Krige). In English and German with English subtitles. 35mm. Guest lecturer on Tuesday: Eric Patrick, award-winning animator and Associate Professor at Northwestern University. (MR)

ALICE
(NECO Z ALENKY)
1988, Jan Švankmajer, Czech Republic/Switzerland/UK, 85 min.
With Kristyna Kohoutova

Sunday, October 8, 5:30 pm
Tuesday, October 10, 6:00 pm

This haunted version of Lewis Carroll’s classic strips away the cuteness of other adaptations to create a delicious, convoluted, goosebump-raising nightmare. A shabby animal pelt comes to eerie life as the cunning, bright-eyed White Rabbit, portrayed as an adversary and mastermind rather than a mere guide. Alice is not a victim but a pragmatic little adventurer who can gamely come to terms with an aggressive rat in a blue velvet suit or kick the stuffing out of an offending toy. In Czech with English subtitles. ProRes digital. (BS)
WALTZ WITH BASHIR
2008, Ari Folman, Israel/France/Germany, 90 min.
Saturday, October 14, 6:30 pm
Tuesday, October 17, 6:00 pm
A search for obscured history is at the core of Folman's crushingly powerful memoir of Israel's 1982 Lebanon war. Utilizing starkly evocative animation, lurid colors, and ironically pounding pop tunes, the now middle-aged director depicts fantasies, recurring nightmares, interviews, and flashbacks in order to penetrate the passive complicity of his Israeli army unit in the horrific massacre of Palestinian civilians in the Sabra and Shatila refugee camps. In Hebrew, Arabic, German, and English with English subtitles. 35mm. (BS)

PERSEPOLIS
2007, Marjane Satrapi and Vincent Paronnaud, France, 96 min.
With Chiara Mastroianni, Catherine Deneuve, Danielle Darrieux
Saturday, October 21, 1:30 pm
Tuesday, October 24, 6:00 pm
Based on writer/co-director Satrapi's bestselling illustrated memoir, this Oscar nominee is the story of both an individual and a country. The individual in question is Satrapi herself, recalling her girlhood and young adulthood growing up in Iran as it moves from the tyranny of monarchy to the tyranny of theocracy. The film uses humor and irony to tell its story, along with richly textured black-and-white images that brilliantly bridge the worlds of drawing and animation. In French with English subtitles. 35mm. (MR)

THE BOXTROLLS
2014, Graham Annable and Anthony Stacchi, USA, 96 min.
With Ben Kingsley, Elle Fanning
Saturday, October 28, 3:00 pm
Tuesday, October 31, 6:00 pm
The Oregon-based Laika company (CORALINE) has forged one of the most distinctive styles in contemporary animation, combining meticulous stop-motion with offbeat stories that venture into the edgy and the macabre. THE BOXTROLLS applies elements of steampunk, slapstick, Victorian gaslight melodrama, and German expressionism to a politically resonant story set in class-conscious Cheesebridge, where a ghoulish striver (Kingsley) schemes to crash the upper crust by demonizing a subterranean race of harmless monsters. DCP digital. (MR)

Jim Trainor in person!

THE PINK EGG
2016, Jim Trainor, USA, 71 min.

Thursday, October 12, 6:00 pm

Featuring his trademark dark comedy and fascination with the natural world, Chicago-based animator Trainor explores the complex and curious lives of insects in his first live-action feature. Casting humans in the starring roles, THE PINK EGG follows life-cycles of “The Seven Sisters,” a group of evolutionarily related wasps and bees. Unitard costumes and candy-colored props set the stage for the feeding, mating, and hunting rituals of a civilization as successful as our own, yet founded on utterly alien principles. Digital file.

LaTurbo Avedon, Rachel Clarke, and Claudia Hart in person!

The Real-Fake
2006-17, Various artists, Various nations, ca. 80 min.

Thursday, October 19, 6:00 pm

Curated by Claudia Hart, Rachel Clarke, and Pat Reynolds, “The Real-Fake” brings together 23 artists working with 3-D simulation tools to produce a new esthetic and ethic of the fake. For example, the Russian collective AES+F turns geopolitical hierarchies upside down in an uncanny digital trompe l’oeil; and virtual artist LaTurbo Avedon explores the Internet’s physical manifestations in a new work commissioned for this show. Hart and Clarke introduce the program, joined by Avedon for a discussion afterward. Digital file.

Sandra Gibson, Luis Recoder, and Brian Case in person!

Tense Nature:
The Changeover System
2017, Sandra Gibson and Luis Recoder, USA, 60 min.

Thursday, October 26, 6:00 pm

New York-based artists Gibson and Recoder’s latest live work unites the Gene Siskel Film Center’s two theaters by cycling the reels of one feature-length film through each of its four 35mm projectors, while glassware and other diffracting media bend, scatter, distort, and redefine the film’s image. Joined by Chicago-based musician Brian Case, the three guide the audience between the two spaces to produce a spectral montage in three dimensions. Presented in collaboration with Gallery 400 at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Alex Gerbaulet in person!

Alex Gerbaulet:
Digging Deep
2005-17, Alex Gerbaulet, Germany, ca. 65 min.

Thursday, November 2, 6:00 pm

Utilizing both archival material and footage filmed by the artist herself, Gerbaulet’s documentaries bridge the gap between analysis and poetry. Buildings, space, and the body serve as sites that bear witness to past crime and trauma. The program features Gerbaulet’s recent films SCHICHT (2015) and DEPTH OF FIELD (2017), followed by TATTOOED PRISONERS (2007) and DATTERODE (2005). Presented in collaboration with the Goethe-Institut Chicago. Various formats.

NEWLY RESTORED!
The Old Dark House
1932, James Whale, USA, 72 min.
With Boris Karloff, Gloria Stuart, Melvyn Douglas

“Full of acid wit and howlingly funny, THE OLD DARK HOUSE is one of the most giddily glorious films you’re ever likely to see.”—Cath Clarke, Time Out London

Presented in a dazzling new 4K digital restoration, this legendary horror classic gives creepy-house conventions a wild and unpredictable spin, laced with black humor, sexual perversity, and stylistic flourishes that at times border on the experimental. A quintessential dark and stormy night brings a group of disparate travelers to a forbidding mansion in the middle of the Welsh nowhere. DCP digital. (MR)
