From March 1 through 28, the Gene Siskel Film Center welcomes you to the 16th Annual European Union Film Festival, the largest showcase in North America for the cinema of the European Union nations. This year’s festival presents the Chicago premieres of 61 new feature films, providing a broad picture of the creativity of Europe’s most adventurous filmmakers.

The festival screens the latest films by a host of major directors including Alain Resnais (YOU AIN’T SEEN NOTHIN’ YET), Margarethe von Trotta (HANNAH ARENDT), István Szabó (THE DOOR), Ken Loach (THE ANGELS’ SHARE), Sally Potter (GINGER & ROSA), Ulrich Seidl (PARADISE: FAITH and PARADISE: HOPE), “Marco Bellocchio (DORMANT BEAUTY),” Sergei Loznitsa (IN THE FOG), and Jan Hrebejk (4SOME).

According to the tradition of our festival, the opening night is presided over by the nation currently holding the presidency of the European Union. On Friday, March 1, our host is the Honorable Aidan Cronin, Consul General of Ireland, Chicago. Our opening film, STELLA DAYS by Thaddeus O’Sullivan, stars Martin Sheen in a critically acclaimed performance as an embattled Catholic priest who tries to introduce the movies to his conservative rural flock.

Renowned German actress Barbara Sukowa appears in person on Friday, March 8, to discuss her tour-de-force starring role in HANNAH ARENDT. Chicago director, writer, and radio personality Mike Houlihan appears in person on Wednesday, March 13, with his personal documentary OUR IRISH COUSINS. Director Robert Mullan appears at screenings of his Lithuanian historical drama LETTERS TO SOFIA, and Romanian director Dan Chisu is tentatively scheduled to appear at a screening of CHASING RAINBOWS. Check our web site at www.siskelfilmcenter.org for updates on appearances and added special events.

We celebrate Spain in a special way this year, by incorporating the Festival of New Spanish Cinema, curated by Pragda, as a sidebar section of the EU Festival (see pp. 4-5).

The festival closes on Thursday, March 28 with Ken Loach’s greatly anticipated THE ANGELS’ SHARE, the Scottish-themed whisky-loving comedy that brought down the house at the 2012 Cannes Film Festival. A reception hosted by Whole Foods Market follows.

The Gene Siskel Film Center thanks the consulates, the consuls general, and the cultural institutions of the European Union in Chicago, and their embassies in Washington, D.C., for their enthusiastic participation. We especially salute the efforts of all those who served as festival advisors.

In a special collaboration with Pragda, the Gene Siskel Film Center is integrating Pragda’s 2012 Festival of New Spanish Cinema with this year’s European Union Film Festival in order to give our EU Festival access to some of the most exciting recent Spanish films. The two films in the 2012 Festival of New Spanish Cinema that have already premiered in Chicago, SLEEP TIGHT and THE DOUBLE STEPS, will be shown in the week following the EU Film Festival.

—Martin Rubin

In its fifth consecutive year, the Festival of New Spanish Cinema consolidates itself as the most important itinerant festival of contemporary Spanish Cinema in North America. Once again, the festival will screen some of the riskiest and most innovative Spanish films of the year.

The festival opens on March 6 with Paco León’s CARMINA OR BLOW UP, the popular phenomenon that has been winning over audiences since its release. Other films selected include David Trueba’s MADRID, 1987, a sensual and intelligent encounter between two very different generations; Gabriel Velázquez’s ICEBERG, an insightful study of adolescence; WILAYA, a window into the lives of a Sahrawi family living in a Saharan refugee camp, directed by Pedro Pérez Rosado; THE DOUBLE STEPS, Isaki Lacuesta’s gorgeously shot award-winning film; and SLEEP TIGHT, the latest chiller by mastermind of suspense Jaume Balagueró.

The 2012 Festival of New Spanish Cinema was organized by Pragda in collaboration with Instituto Cervantes of Chicago. Supported by the Ministry of Culture of Spain-ICAA, the Embassy of Spain in Washington, and American Airlines.

CARMINA OR BLOW UP, March 6, 9

In the European Union Film Festival and the Festival of New Spanish Cinema:

CARMINA OR BLOW UP
(CARMINA O REVIENTA)
2012, Paco León, Spain, 71 min.
With Carmina Barrios, María León

Wednesday, March 6, 6:30 pm
Saturday, March 9, 5:15 pm

Comedy star León’s unique directing debut has become a popular phenomenon in Spain. The subject is Carmina Barrios, played by the director’s mother and greatly resembling her, although the film plays slyly with the distinction between fact and fiction. Owner of a bar in Sevilla, saddled with a shiftless husband and a mountain of debts, she holds court in her kitchen, reminiscing and philosophizing as she tries to deal with a disastrous robbery of 80 hams. Compared by critics to a character out of Almodóvar, Carmina is funny, raunchy, outrageous, and never less than fascinating. In Spanish with English subtitles. DCP video. (MR)
WiLaYa, (aka TEARS OF SAND)
2012, Pedro Pérez Rosado, Spain, 97 min.
With Nadhira Mohamed, Memona Mohamed
Friday, March 8, 6:00 pm
This visually stunning drama offers a fascinating look at the Sahrawi people of northwest Africa. After living sixteen years with a foster family in Spain, a young Sahrawi woman returns to her family at a refugee camp. Suspended between two cultures, she challenges her new home's traditionalist ways by becoming the first female truck driver in the region.
In Spanish and Arabic with English subtitles. HDCAM video. (MR)

MADRID, 1987
2011, David Trueba, Spain, 104 min.
With José Sacristán, María Valverde
Sunday, March 17, 5:15 pm
Tuesday, March 19, 6:00 pm
Trueba's tour de force ingeniously uses a sex-farce premise to explore the transitional post-Franco period. An aging writer's clumsy attempts to seduce a pretty student get the two of them locked naked in a small bathroom. There the two generations confront each other in an exhilarating talkfest that has been compared to MY DINNER WITH ANDRE and BEFORE SUNRISE.
In Spanish with English subtitles. HDCAM video. (MR)

iCeBerG
2011, Gabriel Velázquez, Spain, 84 min.
With Jesús Nieto, Carolina Morocho
Saturday, March 23, 5:15 pm
Tuesday, March 26, 6:00 pm
Adults never appear in this spare, subtle, and intensely focused study of adolescence, which interweaves three plotlines: Mauri, orphaned by a car crash, seeks to recover a ring that belonged to his late parents. Rebecca, dumped in a Catholic boarding school by her absent parents, thinks she's pregnant. Simon and Jo live wild and free in an abandoned boathouse.
In Spanish with English subtitles. HDCAM video. (MR)

SLEEP TIGHT
(MIENTRAS DUERMES)
2011, Jaime Balagueró, Spain, 102 min.
With Luis Tosar, Marta Etura
Sunday, March 31, 3:00 pm
Wednesday, April 3, 7:45 pm
This superbly crafted psychological thriller by the co-creator of the [REC] franchise features Tosar, one of Spain's best actors, as an ever-so-helpful apartment concierge who secretly strives to make the tenants' lives miserable. He focuses his malice on the radiantly beautiful Clara, invisibly invading and disrupting her life in ever more perverse and shocking ways. In Spanish with English subtitles. HDCAM video. (MR)

In the Festival of New Spanish Cinema only:
THE DOUBLE STEPS
(LOS PASOS DOBLES)
2011, Isaki Lacuesta, Spain, 86 min.
With Bokar Dembele, Hamadoun Kassogue
Saturday, March 30, 5:00 pm
Monday, April 1, 7:45 pm
Lacuesta's tantalizing mind-bender revolves around the elusive traces left by François Augiéras, an American-born artist (1925-71) who wandered through the Sahara. The film retraces his steps through two alter-egos: a young West African man who seems to re-live the artist's life, and Spanish painter Miguel Barceló, who searches for Augiéras's lost masterpiece. In French and Bambara with English subtitles. DigiBeta video. (MR)

OPENING NIGHT FILM!

Stella Days

2011, Thaddeus O’Sullivan, Ireland, 100 min.
With Martin Sheen, Stephen Rea

Friday, March 1, 6:00 pm
Sunday, March 3, 5:00 pm

A stellar performance by Martin Sheen as Fr. Daniel Barry, a Catholic priest who has burned a few bridges in his time, brightens the darker recesses of this story of one man’s attempt to bring cinema to a small Irish town. Set in 1956 Tipperary, where the church holds sway and the movies are regarded as the devil’s work to many of his provincial flock, film buff Daniel sets out to open a movie house, royally riling his bishop and encountering the nemesis from hell in local politician Brendan McSweeny (Rea). In English. Special advance screening courtesy of Tribeca Films and Newgrange Productions. DCP video. (BS)

Immediately following the screening, the audience is invited to an Irish Food and Drink Showcase and Reception, hosted by the Consul General of Ireland, Aidan Cronin.

Note: No free passes or blue tickets will be valid for the opening night screening.

CLOSING NIGHT FILM!

The Angels’ Share

2012, Ken Loach, UK, 101 min.
With Paul Brannigan, Siobhan Reilly

Saturday, March 23, 7:00 pm
Thursday, March 28, 6:15 pm

One of the world’s greatest working filmmakers, Ken Loach executes a charming change-of-pace that combines his usual gift for social observation with a less commonly seen flair for upbeat comedy. Winner of the Cannes Jury Prize, the film centers on Robbie (Brannigan), a young Glasgow delinquent who discovers that he has a rare nasal gift for identifying whiskies. He enlists two lads and a lass from his community-service group; posing as a whisky-tasting club, they don kilts and head for the highlands to heist a batch of ultra-valuable single malt. In English. Special advance screening courtesy of IFC Films. HDCAM video. (MR)

Immediately following the screening, the audience is invited to a closing-night reception in our lobby, hosted by Whole Foods Market. Included: Please join Johnnie Walker and The Classic Single Malts for your own Scotch whisky-tasting adventure, hosted by Master of Whisky Kyle McHugh.

Note: No free passes or blue tickets will be valid for the closing night screening.
AUSTRALIA

PARADISE: FAITH
(PARADIES: GLAUBE)
2012, Ulrich Seidl, Austria, 113 min.
With Maria Hofstätter, Nabil Saleh
Sunday, March 17, 5:15 pm
Thursday, March 21, 8:15 pm

The line between devotion and masturbation becomes blurred for a missionary-minded nurse whose punishing prayers are interrupted by the appearance of a contrary husband and the rebellion of the junkie prostitute who is the object of her dubious good works. The second entry in Seidl’s PARADISE trilogy. In German and Arabic with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Strand Releasing. HDCAM video. (BS)

PARADISE: HOPE
(PARADIES: HOFFNUNG)
2013, Ulrich Seidl, Austria, 100 min.
With Melanie Lenz, Verena Lehbauer
Sunday, March 24, 3:00 pm
Monday, March 25, 6:00 pm

Provocateur director Seidl again turns the conventional meaning of a virtue on its head in this final film of his PARADISE trilogy, offering up hope as a skewed form of erotic attraction. Sent to a fat farm for kids, zaftig 13-year-old Melanie targets a doctor forty years her senior for seduction. In German with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Strand Releasing. HDCAM video. (BS)

THE WALL
(DIE WAND)
2012, Julian Pölzl, Austria, 108 min.
With Martina Gedeck
Sunday, March 3, 5:00 pm
Wednesday, March 6, 6:00 pm

Gedeck (THE LIVES OF OTHERS) delivers a tour-de-force performance as the seeming sole survivor of a cosmic catastrophe that has sealed off her ruggedly beautiful slice of the world. Stranded in an alpine cabin with her dog, this resourceful castaway struggles with nothing less than the purpose and fate of the universe. In German with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Music Box Films. DCP video. (BS)

The Fifth Season
(LA CINQUIÈME SAISON)
2012, Peter Brosens and Jessica Woodworth, Belgium, 94 min.
With Aurélia Poirier, Django Schevrens
Sunday, March 3, 7:15 pm
Wednesday, March 6, 8:15 pm

Communal unease grips a village when the effigy-topped bonfire that traditionally marks the end of winter refuses to ignite and no harbingers of spring follow. This apocalyptic tale by the directors of KHADAK and ALTIPLANO is haunting in its imagery, surreal in the dread engendered when neighbor turns against neighbor. In Flemish and French with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Strand Releasing. Presented in collaboration with Reeling, the Chicago Lesbian & Gay International Film Festival. DCP video courtesy of Films Boutique. (BS)

16th Annual European Union Film Festival

THE COLOR OF THE CHAMELEON, March 10, 11

FAITH, LOVE & WHISKEY, March 2, 4

BULGARIA

THE COLOR OF THE CHAMELEON
(TSIVETAT NA HAMELEONA)
2012, Emil Christov, Bulgaria, 114 min.
With Ruscen Vidimiev, Irena Milyankova

Sunday, March 10, 7:15 pm
Monday, March 11, 8:00 pm

Based on Vladislav Todorov’s novel Zincoograph, this black-humorous allegory chronicles an opportunist’s journey to the top of the surveillance underworld. Springing from murky origins, Batko flubs his first secret-police assignment thanks to his lusty landlady, but goes on to create a convoluted network of counterfeit spies. One dirty trick too many and one femme fatale too alluring may prove fatal. In Bulgarian with English subtitles. DCP video courtesy of Peripeteia Film Production. (BS)

FAITH, LOVE & WHISKEY
2012, Kristina Nikolova, Bulgaria, 75 min.
With Yavor Baharov, Lidia Indjova

Saturday, March 2, 8:45 pm
Monday, March 4, 8:00 pm

The pull of homesickness and the pleasures of wild, boozy nights draw upwardly mobile Neli to ditch her American fiancé in New York and fly home for a visit. The envy of the losers she left behind sets the stage for one more fling with the bad boy she can’t forget. Director Nikolova, a University of Chicago alum, injects an atmospheric road movie with the hot urgency of forbidden passion. In Bulgarian and English with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of the filmmaker. DCP video. (BS)

CZECH REPUBLIC

ALOIS NEBEL
2011, Tomas Lunak, Czech Republic, 84 min.

Saturday, March 2, 5:15 pm
Tuesday, March 5, 8:00 pm

This intriguing, technically brilliant adult animation is based on graphic novels by Jaroslav Rudis and Jaromír 99, with influences ranging from film noir to CLOSELY WATCHED TRAINS. Alois, dispatcher at a rural train station, is visited by ghosts. Their stories emerge from the mist, along with pieces of the past that drive Alois mad, yet propel him into the chaos of his nation’s next era. In Czech with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Zeitgeist Films. HDCAM video. (BS)

4SOME
(aka THE HOLY QUATERNITY)
(SVATA CTVERICE)
2012, Jan Hrebejk, Czech Republic, 78 min.
With Jan Langmajer, Hynek Cermak

Sunday, March 17, 7:30 pm
Wednesday, March 20, 6:00 pm

Director Hrebejk (BEAUTY IN TROUBLE) cuts loose on the bawdy side in this spritely comedy with lust in its heart. Longtime neighbors Ondra and Vitek share thoughts of straying, and their wives seem primed for a game-changing proposal. But wait, their hormone-fired teenagers, two boys and two girls, are home alone, and the apple doesn’t fall very far from this particular tree. In Czech with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Strand Releasing. HDCAM video. (BS)

4SOME, March 17, 20
PERFECT DAYS

(IZENY MAJ SVE DNÝ)
2011, Alice Nellis, Czech Republic, 108 min.
With Ivana Chýlíková, Ondrej Sokol

Friday, March 8, 8:00 pm
Saturday, March 9, 3:00 pm

Director Nellis has her finger on the pulse of the contempo woman with this timely comedy. Celebrity hairdresser Erika is almost over-the-hill according to her loudly ticking biological clock. A birthday strip-ogram socks the problem home, and this cougar is on the prowl for a baby daddy. In Czech with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of MonteCristo International. DCP video. (BS)

SUPERCLÁSICO

2011, Ole Christian Madsen, Denmark, 99 min.
With Paprika Steen, Anders W. Berthelsen

Saturday, March 2, 7:00 pm
Tuesday, March 5, 6:00 pm

In this neo-screwball comedy, a jilted husband (Berthelsen) consnives to win back his wife (Steen, as a high-powered sports agent). He follows her to Buenos Aires, where he discovers that his rival is Argentina’s biggest soccer star. Denmark’s Academy Award submission for 2011. In Danish, Spanish, and English with English subtitles. Digital video courtesy of the Danish Film Institute and the Embassy of Denmark. (MR)

MUSHROOMING

(SEENELÄIKI)
2012, Toomas Hussar, Estonia, 93 min.
With Rivo E. Tamm, Elna Reinold

Saturday, March 9, 9:00 pm
Wednesday, March 13, 8:15 pm

Estonia’s official Oscar submission careens from comedy to suspense when a smug politico’s response to scandal is to disappear into the woods on a mushroom-hunting jaunt. Add one Goth hitchhiker, some spooky forest atmosphere, and a missing hermit, and MUSHROOMING delivers nothing less than a satire on civilization dissolving into mayhem. In Estonian with English subtitles. DCP video courtesy of Allfilm. (BS)

ALMOST 18

2012, Maarit Lalli, Finland, 110 min.
With Henrik Mäki-Tanila

Sunday, March 10, 7:00 pm
Wednesday, March 13, 6:00 pm

This sensitive seriocomic look at adolescence follows four boys who are 17, and one who has reached the magic plateau of 18. Dealing with pushy parents, bratty siblings, and pregnant girlfriends, the younger boys think that turning 18 will solve everything, but the 18-year-old—amusement-park mascot by day, stripper by night—knows better. In Finnish with English subtitles. DCP video courtesy of the Finnish Film Foundation. (MR)

ALIYAH

(ALIYAH)
2012, Elie Wajeman, France, 90 min.
With Pio Marmai, Cédric Kahn

Sunday, March 24, 3:00 pm
Monday, March 25, 6:00 pm

A low-level Paris drug-dealer who is Jewish sees aliyyah (immigration to Israel) as a chance to escape his present life. He needs cash fast, which means more dealing, which means greater risks. Director Wajeman avoids moralizing in this offbeat mixture of character study, crime story, and family drama. In French and Hebrew with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Film Movement. DCP video. (MR)

BECOMING TRAVIATA, March 23, 27

BECOMING TRAVIATA (LA TRAVIATA ET NOUS)
2012, Philippe Béziat, France, 108 min.
With Natalie Dessay, Jean-François Sivadier

Saturday, March 23, 3:00 pm
Wednesday, March 27, 6:00 pm

This exhilarating account of the creative process focuses on the preparations for a 2011 production of Verdi’s La Traviata helmed by celebrated stage director Jean-François Sivadier. We get a behind-the-scenes look at such areas as set design and musical direction, but the heart of the film is the intense collaboration between Sivadier and charismatic soprano Natalie Dessay. In French, Italian, and English with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of MTuckman Media. DCP video. (MR)

THE DAY I SAW YOUR HEART, March 3, 7

THE DAY I SAW YOUR HEART (ET SOUDAIN TOUT LE MONDE ME MANQUE)
2011, Jennifer Devoldère, France, 98 min.
With Mélanie Laurent, Michel Blanc

Sunday, March 3, 3:00 pm
Thursday, March 7, 6:00 pm

This touching and funny film centers on father-daughter conflicts in a Parisian Jewish family. An X-ray technician who yearns to be an artist, Justine (Laurent) attributes her romantic failures to her mercurial, infuriating father (Blanc in a juicy role). When he announces that his much younger second wife is pregnant, it sets off a series of crises in a family already teetering on the edge of dysfunction. In French with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Film Movement. DCP video. (MR)

MY WORST NIGHTMARE, March 16, 18, 28

MY WORST NIGHTMARE (MON PIRE CAUCHEMAR)
2011, Anne Fontaine, France, 103 min.
With Isabelle Huppert, André Dussolier

Saturday, March 16, 8:15 pm
Monday, March 18, 6:00 pm
Thursday, March 28, 8:15 pm

In this often uproarious culture-clash comedy, an upscale, uptight Parisian family gets a badly needed dose of defrosting when their lives are invaded by a rude-and-crude plumber/construction-worker (Benoît Poelvoorde). The plot is not the most original, but the superb cast (including Huppert as a mercilessly chic art critic) and Fontaine’s smooth direction make it hum. In French with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Strand Releasing. HDCAM video. (MR)

PARIS-MANHATTAN, March 10, 14

PARIS-MANHATTAN 2012, Sophie Lellouche, France, 77 min.
With Alice Taglioni, Patrick Bruel, Woody Allen

Sunday, March 10, 3:00 pm
Thursday, March 14, 6:00 pm

In this breezy romantic comedy, Alice is a nice Jewish girl with a lackluster love life and a fixation on Woody Allen. Much as Allen communed with Bogey in PLAY IT AGAIN, SAM, Alice communes with a poster of her idol. But, when a promising romance with a burglar-alarm salesman goes awry, can Alice still put her faith in Woody? In French and English with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Outsider Pictures. DCP video. (MR)
RENOIR
2012, Gilles Bourdos, France, 111 min.
With Michel Bouquet, Christa Théret
Saturday, March 9, 3:00 pm
Wednesday, March 13, 6:00 pm
This atmospheric biopic begins in 1915. Painter Auguste Renoir (Bouquet) is arthritic and recently widowed; his son Jean (Vincent Rottiers) returns from the war badly wounded. Both are restored by the coarse, stunning redhead Andrée Heuschling (Théret), who becomes the muse of Auguste’s last paintings and Jean’s first films. In French with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Samuel Goldwyn Films. DCP video. (MR)

YOU AIN’T SEEN NOTHIN’ YET
2012, Alain Resnais, France, 115 min.
With Michel Piccoli, Sabine Azéma
Sunday, March 17, 3:00 pm
Thursday, March 21, 6:00 pm
Announced as Resnais’s last film, this sprightly swansong reprises his central themes of memory, self-reflexivity, and theatricality. A late playwright’s actor friends gather at his mansion to view a video of his play Eurydice. Soon they are performing their own versions, the sets conjured up by memory and imagination. In French with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Zeitgeist Films. DCP video. (MR)

OMA & BELLA
2012, Alexa Karolinski, Germany, 76 min.
Sunday, March 10, 3:00 pm
Tuesday, March 12, 6:00 pm
In the kitchen of their Berlin flat, the filmmaker’s Jewish grandmother and her longtime friend Bella reveal mouth-watering recipes along with priceless memories—some sweet, some sour—of prewar youth, wartime tragedies, and postwar pleasures. In German with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Oscilloscope Pictures. HDCAM video. (MR)

GERMANY
Barbara Sukowa in person!
HANNAH ARENDT
2012, Margarethe von Trotta, Germany, 113 min.
With Lars Eidinger, Corinna Harfouch
Friday, March 8, 7:45 pm
Actress Sukowa and director von Trotta reunite in a compelling true story of intellectual honesty. Covering the 1961 trial of Adolf Eichmann, Arendt evolves her controversial concept of “the banality of evil.” In German, English, and Hebrew with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Zeitgeist Films. DCP video. (MR)

HOME FOR THE WEEKEND
2012, Hans-Christian Schmid, Germany, 85 min.
With Lars Eidinger, Corinna Harfouch
Friday, March 15, 6:15 pm
Saturday, March 16, 6:30 pm
In this tense, subtle chamber drama evoking Chekhov and Bergman, rising author Marko (Eidlinger) is summoned to a family gathering, where his bipolar mother’s announcement that she has stopped taking her medications acts as a catalyst that brings to the surface the family members’ buried secrets and evasions. In German with English subtitles. 35mm print courtesy of the Goethe-Institut Chicago. (MR)

Barbara Sukowa will be present for audience discussion. Presented in collaboration with the Nanovic Institute of European Studies, University of Notre Dame.

With Kai Hillebrand, Tina Bartel
Friday, March 22, 6:00 pm
Saturday, March 23, 5:00 pm
This fascinating film recounts how the early 1980s emergence of skateboarding in über-repressive East Germany spearheaded a precarious youth rebellion that encompassed dance, music, sex, drugs, and politics. Beginning in BIG CHILL fashion with former skate buddies attending the funeral of their charismatic leader, the film deftly blends archival footage, animation, reenactments, and straight enactments. In German with English subtitles. Digital video courtesy of the Goethe-Institut Chicago. (MR)

HANNIBAL ANTE PORTAS
2011, Costas Kapakas, Greece, 95 min.
With Renos Haralambidis, Tasos Androniou
Friday, March 15, 8:00 pm
Monday, March 18, 8:00 pm
In one of the funniest, most bitingly satirical Greek films in years, director Kapakas (PEPPERMINT) tackles subjects ranging from a sad-sack husband’s broken heart to the Greek financial crisis. One night in a hot-sheets motel propels naïve cuckold Aristidis to the eye-opening odyssey of his life, tearing through the countryside in a dilapidated hearse in the company of Diomidis, on-the-run desk clerk and moonlighting undertaker. In Greek with English subtitles. DCP video courtesy of the director. (BS)

MAGIC HOUR
2012, István Szabó, Hungary/Germany, 97 min.
With Helen Mirren, Martina Gedeck
Friday, March 22, 6:00 pm
Monday, March 25, 8:00 pm
Hungary’s best-known contemporary director (BEING JULIA, MEPHISTO) teams up with international star Helen Mirren for a chronicle of a turbulent friendship that is perversely nurtured through bouts of explosive emotion. Well-to-do married novelist Magda (Gedeck of THE LIVES OF OTHERS) hires an eccentric washerwoman (Mirren) as her housekeeper and is drawn into a relationship of suspicion and closely held secrets. In English. DCP video courtesy of Bankside Films. (BS)

2011, Ian Fitzgibbon, Ireland, 97 min.
With Andy Serkis, Thomas Brodie-Sangster
Saturday, March 23, 3:00 pm
Wednesday, March 27, 8:00 pm

This tragicomic story of a terminally ill teenager is anything but macabre in the hands of director Fitzgibbon (PERRIER'S BOUNTY). A talented comic-book artist, 15-year-old Donald stares down his likely fate by living on the edge, to the concern of parents who set him up with a psychiatrist (Serkis) dueling with demons of his own. In English. Special advance screening courtesy of Shoreline Entertainment. DCP video. (BS)

Mike Houlihan in person!
OUR IRISH COUSINS
2012, Mike Houlihan, Ireland/USA, 99 min.
Wednesday, March 13, 8:15 pm

In this comic, good-hearted chronicle of an Irish American's return to the Ould Sod, Chicago journalist/radio personality/actor Houlihan charts a course to Dublin and County Clare for a look at the roots of those hardy Midwestern shamrocks. In English. Digital video courtesy of the filmmaker. (BS)

Director/writer Mike Houlihan will be present for audience discussion.

2012, Marco Bellocchio, Italy, 115 min.
With Toni Servillo, Isabelle Huppert
Friday, March 22, 8:00 pm
Sunday, March 24, 5:00 pm

Master director Bellocchio takes a bracingly unorthodox approach to a controversial euthanasia case that gripped Italy in 2009. The film weaves three different stories: a right-wing senator (Servillo) deciding whether to vote against his party; a famous actress (Huppert) abandoning her career to care for her comatose daughter; and a young doctor fighting to save a suicidal addict. In Italian. Special advance screening courtesy of Adopt Films. DCP video. (MR)

PIAZZA FONTANA
(ROMANZA DI UNA STRAGE)
2012, Marco Tullio Giordano, Italy, 129 min.
With Valerio Mastandrea
Sunday, March 10, 4:45 pm
Thursday, March 14, 7:45 pm

Director Giordano (THE BEST OF YOUTH) bases this complex, absorbing procedural on a shocking 1969 Milan bank bombing. Doggedly pursuing the case, a police captain finds questions upon questions: Were anarchists framed by neo-fascists? Were there two different bombs? Were the CIA and the Italian military involved? In Italian with English subtitles. Special advance screening courtesy of Adopt Films. DCP video. (MR)

 Hungarian opera star Viktoria Vizin, who plays a key role in the film’s finale, will be present for audience discussion on Saturday.

2011, Martin Sulik, Slovakia, 107 min.
With Jan Mazga, Miroslav Gulyas

Saturday, March 2, 7:00 pm
Thursday, March 7, 8:00 pm

Growing up in a Romany village where cell phones and satellite dishes stand in stark contrast to seamy squalor, 14-year-old Adam is haunted by the mysterious death of his father and his mother’s hasty remarriage to Uncle Zigo, a ruthless local mobster. Loosely based on Hamlet, GYPSY deftly blends expressionism and gritty neorealism, bringing the color, chaos, and music of Roma life to bear in a moving coming-of-age story. In Roma and Slovak with English subtitles. DigiBeta video courtesy of MK2. (BS)

Broken 2012, Rufus Norris, UK, 90 min. With Tim Roth, Eloise Laurence

Saturday, March 16, 6:30 pm
Wednesday, March 20, 6:00 pm

Freely mixing humor, fantasy, grit, and child’s-eye lyricism, BROKEN centers on an 11-year-old girl living with her lawyer dad (Roth) in a cul-de-sac whose other households include a lout with three slutty redheaded daughters. A lie by one of the latter sets in motion a chain of events that bring the young heroine to the very brink of survival. In English. Special advance screening courtesy of Film Movement. DCP video. (MR)

GINGER & ROSA, March 2

GINGER & ROSA 2012, Sally Potter, UK, 90 min. With Elle Fanning, Alice Englert

Saturday, March 2, 7:00 pm

In director Potter’s very personal look-back at the 1960s, Ginger (Fanning) bonds intensely with Rosa (Englert), but the two take divergent paths into the upheavals of the era. Ginger plunges into the anti-nuke protest movement, while Rosa gravitates to the sexual side of the revolution—with devastating consequences for their friendship. In English. Special advance screening courtesy of A24 Films. 35mm widescreen. (MR)

SIGHTSEERS, March 2, 7

SIGHTSEERS 2012, Ben Wheatley, UK, 89 min. With Alice Lowe, Steve Oram

Tuesday, March 6, 5:15 pm
Thursday, March 7, 6:00 pm

Rising auteur Wheatley follows up his cult hit KILL LIST with a love story—of sorts. To the strains of “Tainted Love,” gormless lovebirds Tina and Chris set out in their RV to tour Yorkshire. A parking-lot dispute quickly leaves a bloody corpse in their wake—the first of many that will pile up over increasingly petty slights and annoyances. In English. Special advance screening courtesy of IFC Films. DCP video. (MR)

Lecturer: Mary Patten

From January 25 through May 7, we offer a series of fourteen programs entitled Revolution in the Air: The Long Sixties, with weekly Tuesday lecture/discussions by visual artist, video-maker, and School of the Art Institute of Chicago professor Mary Patten. The series is presented in cooperation with the School of the Art Institute of Chicago’s Department of Art History, Theory, and Criticism. Additional screenings of the films on Friday or Saturday do not include Prof. Patten’s lecture. Admission to all Revolution in the Air programs is $5 for Film Center members; usual admission prices apply for non-members.

—Martin Rubin

The Arab Spring, the “movements of the squares,” and Occupy have rekindled interest in other revolutions from the near and distant past, as well as their manifestations in film form. This series will bring together key films and experimental videos that emerged from the revolutionary moment of the “long 1960s” (1955-1975). We will look at explicitly political films such as Gillo Pontecorvo’s BATTLE OF ALGIERS and Chris Marker’s A GRIN WITHOUT A CAT, where cameras were on the ground, recording or re-enacting the great upheavals of that era. We will also watch films that directed their gaze toward the ephemeral moments of how people lived—spheres of intimacy that reflected and anticipated bigger cultural shifts. Finally, we will screen a few “speculative fictions” of the period, like Robert Kramer’s ICE and Lizzie Borden’s BORN IN FLAMES.

Thursday, March 7, 8:00 pm
An international roster of video and new media artists remix and reimagine works by Chicago video pioneer Phil Morton. Morton’s genre-defying work anticipated remix; he also developed COPY-IT-RIGHT, an alternative to copyright that encourages re-editing and sharing media art. Introduced and organized by Jon Cates, founder of the Phil Morton Memorial Archive and Chair of SAIC’s Department of Film, Video, New Media, and Animation, this program interweaves Morton’s originals with their remixes. Presented in collaboration with the Society for Cinema and Media Studies Annual Conference. This program is generously supported by the Richard and Ellen Sandor Family Foundation.

Multiple formats. (Jon Cates)

Jon Cates and various artists will be present for audience discussion.

L.A. Rebellion
1973-2006, Various directors, USA, ca. 77 min.

Thursday, March 28, 6:00 pm
In the 1970s and 1980s, a group of African and African American filmmakers emerged from UCLA’s film school with a body of provocative and visionary works. Referred to now as the L.A. Rebellion, this group would have a radical impact on black cinematic practice and alternative filmmaking in the U.S. This program kicks off a multi-institutional series in Chicago exploring the L.A. Rebellion. Introduced by series co-curator Jacqueline Stewart, it features shorts by Ben Caldwell, Julie Dash, Barbara McCullough, and others. Presented in association with UCLA Film & Television Archive and supported in part by grants from the Getty Foundation and the Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts. For more info, visit saic.edu/cate. Multiple formats.

Hannes Schüpbach in person!

Spin/Verso/Contour: An Evening with Hannes Schüpbach
2001-11, Various directors, France/Switzerland, ca. 60 min.

Thursday, April 4, 6:00 pm
Renowned Swiss artist Hannes Schüpbach’s films are lyrical, often transcendent portraits of people, spaces, and everyday life. Schüpbach weaves together light, gesture, and a keen attentiveness to the material world into meticulously structured compositions. For this program, he presents SPIN/VERSO/CONTOUR (2001-11), an affecting trilogy about his parents, and L’ATELIER (2008), a portrait of an artist’s studio in Paris. Organized with the support of SWISS FILMS—The Arts Council of Switzerland. 16mm. (Amy Beste)

Hannes Schüpbach will be present for audience discussion.

THE IRAN JOB

2012, Till Schauder, USA/Iran, 90 min.

"Inspiring…a complicated, accessible and heartfelt human drama."—Andrew O’Hehir, Salon.com

After striking out in his bid to play for the NBA, charismatic Kevin Sheppard ends up playing in the Iranian Basketball Super League for a brand-new underdog team in the ancient city of Shiraz. He is the only African American most of his new friends and teammates have ever seen in the flesh, but the culture shock cuts both ways, as his friendship with three outspoken young Iranian women becomes the definitive experience of his new life.
